

An Amazing Day

Last year, five days before Christmas, my classmates and I had a Christmas feast in our classroom. That was the best Christmas feast ever!

First, we sang some Christmas songs. There were a lot of songs we liked. We even sang some songs in other languages. It was so much fun.

After that, we played some board games like Monopoly, Wet Head and Dig In. I think Monopoly is the best because there are no guarantees. No one knows what would happen next and who would win. This is why I think it is very exciting.

The last activity I was looking forward to was the food party. We had all kinds of foods such as cookies, potato chips, pineapples and even a huge Christmas cake. We felt very full. What an amazing day!

Yesterday was my birthday. I was very excited to celebrate with my whole family. We celebrated at home. I lit the candles on the cake. The cake was very delicious. Later that night, we went to KFC to have dinner. It was wonderful. We were all happy, but my parents were happier because I was one year older.
