

A Road Accident

5B Chan Sze Chit, Damian

Yesterday morning, Jacob was late for school because his alarm clock did not ring. He ate his breakfast hurriedly and rushed out of the house.

While Jacob was rushing to school, a driver of a private car was driving at full speed on Funny Road towards him. Luckily, the car did not hit Jacob. Suddenly, a police car appeared. The police car crashed into Jacob. He was panic and screamed. Unluckily, Jacob broke his left leg and suffered minor head injuries. Finally, the policeman called Jacob's mum to the hospital to see him.

From this accident, Jacob has learned a lesson. He knew that he should not run across the road. He needs to use the footbridge when he crosses the road next time.

A Genie from the Wardrobe

5B Choi Lok Chi, Charlotte

One night, Eric and Alan lost their way in a forest. It was a very creepy Halloween night. To appear brave, Alan suggested going into the castle. Eric had no choice, so with chattering teeth, he crept into the castle.

There was only one room in the castle but it was unlocked. 'Maybe the master of the castle does not want to meet us,' said Eric in a trembling voice. In the room, there was only an old wardrobe. Outside, the wind growled like an angry animal. The wind caused the house rumble. Suddenly, the wardrobe creaked. A genie flew out. The genie smiled at Alan, 'You are a very brave young man.' Then a magic cloak flew out of the wardrobe and sat on Alan's shoulders. Suddenly, Alan could feel he was flying in the sky, flying towards his home. It was an illusion.

Eric squeezed his eyes shut. The genie said, 'You are as weak as a child.' The genie turned Eric into a baby boy and sent him out of the castle.

What a horrible experience!
