Yesterday morning, Jacob woke up late. He was in a hurry because he was late for school. He banged the door loudly before he ran out of his house.

Jacob crossed the road. He didn't use the footbridge. While he was crossing the road, an angry driver shouted, 'Hey! What are you doing? Why don't you make use of the footbridge?' The driver was very angry. Jacob did not listen. He carried on walking. Suddenly, he saw a police car coming. He panicked and screamed loudly. The police car almost hit him. He was so frightened that he fell hard on the ground.

Finally, the policeman took him to the hospital. Now, Jacob knows that he should always use the footbridge.

The Picnic

Last Saturday, I went on a picnic with my friends. While we were playing games in the woodland, we got lost. The woodland was so beautiful, so we walked through the woods.

While walking, we found a castle. Behind the castle, there were two big bare trees. Since we were tired from walking, we decided to take a rest in the castle.

Inside the castle, we found a room. It was very dark inside. Suddenly, two bats flew out of the room. We trembled with fear. We phoned our parents to get help from them. In the end, we were rescued by our parents.
