Yesterday was a lovely day. It was a perfect day for us to fly our kites. My family and I went to Clear Water Bay Country Park by minibus.

When we arrived there, we flew our kites first. My kite was very high. After flying for a long time, we were tired and hungry. We ate some food.

We went home at six o'clock. I felt tired but I was happy. It was a wonderful day.

Yesterday, my family and I went to Hong Kong Gold Coast Hotel to spend the day.

When we arrived there, we took photos with the Pikachu Christmas tree first. Then, we went to the Golden Beach to watch the beautiful sunset. Finally, we ate seafood for dinner.

It was a great day. I would like to go there again next summer.
