

A Genie from the Wardrobe

5A Chan Chun Yu, Joseph

One day, while Eric and Alan were walking in a forest, they saw a castle. They wanted to have an adventure inside the castle. Alan was not afraid and wanted to go inside, but Eric was very frightened. He couldn't stop shaking and shivering. His teeth were chattering. Alan calmed him down, and after some time, they decided to slip into the castle.

When they went into the castle, they were surprised to see that there was only a wardrobe inside the big castle. They opened the wardrobe and they were shocked because they saw a genie flying out. The genie looked very creepy. It was as white as a ghost.

Eric and Alan were so scared. They ran out of the castle. Luckily, they found a way out of the forest. Eventually, they arrived home safely.

An Imaginary Illness

One morning, Jack woke up late. He wanted to take sick leave because there was a Chinese test on that day. Therefore, he went to see the doctor. Jack zipped into the clinic. The nurse asked, 'What's the matter with you?'

'I'm sick,' reported Jack.

'I have a special medicine for you,' said the nurse.

'What is it?' asked Jack. He was curious to know about the special medicine.

The nurse prescribed Jack some magical candies. After he ate it, he said, 'Why didn't I go to school? School is fun!' Then, he took the MTR to school. When Jack arrived at the school, his classmates were just having the Chinese test. He took the test happily. He got 95 marks! He was thrilled.

After that, Jack liked taking tests very much. He was not scared of tests anymore.
