

An Unforgettable Experience

6B Liew Jia Xin, Jessie

Dear Peter,

How are you? Are you still in Singapore? Is everything good there?

Well, last week, I went to Beijing with my family. It was an unforgettable experience.

Before the trip, we were very thrilled. During the trip, we visited the Great Wall. It was boiling hot, so we wore cool sportswear, sunglasses and hats. While walking up the Great Wall, we were soaked in sweat. Although we complained about the heat all the time, we still continued to walk, and along the way, enjoyed the brilliant mountain views.

When we got back to the hotel, we were tired. My sister and I fell asleep as soon as we lay down on the bed.

I was very proud of myself when I returned to Hong Kong. I shared my experience with my friends and described the excellent views. I am happy that I now know more about China! In fact, I hope I can visit Beijing again.

Have you ever visited Beijing? If so, please tell me about your experience.

Love,

John
