Yesterday, Tim had to take a test, but he wanted to avoid it, so he pretended to be sick.

When Mum walked into his bedroom, she asked, 'What's the matter with you?' Tim said, 'I have a fever.' His Mum felt his forehead and said, 'You don't have a fever.' Then Tim said, 'I am hungry. I want to have breakfast now!' His Mum replied, 'No, you should go to see the doctor now.'

Finally, Tim told Mum the truth and he decided to go to school and take the test. He learned that he should have studied.

On Sunday afternoon, Tom, Ken and Susan were playing in the playground. Susan wasn't very happy because Tom and Ken kept laughing at her because she wore glasses.

Suddenly, Tom fell because he tripped over a rock. His knee started bleeding. Ken said to Tom, 'Oh, you are so clumsy! Ha ha!'

After that, Susan helped Tom get up. And then, she asked him if he was ok. He said his knee still hurt a little bit.

When they found Ken again, Tom told him not to laugh at Susan. Later, Susan and Ken became friends.

Years later, Tom and Susan got married and had four kids who wore glasses. And at their wedding, everyone wore glasses.

And obviously, they didn't invite Ken!

Rainy

Last Monday, my teacher, my classmates and I went on a school picnic at Tai Po Country Park. We left school at 8 a.m. We got on the school bus. We sang songs there because we were happy!

When we arrived at the park, we had a picnic. We had sandwiches and sausages. Then, we played ball games. It was fun!

Suddenly, it started raining! We ran to the school bus because it was raining. We felt tired and wet. We said, 'Oh no! We're all wet!'

Finally, my teacher, my classmates and I dried ourselves with towels. We were so happy. What a great day!
