5A Mak Hui Man, Mandy

My family and I had a day trip in Hong Kong last month. Before the trip, we discussed where we might go. Dad wanted to visit the Big Buddha. Mum wanted to take photos at The Peak. I wanted to go to Disneyland. After the discussion, we decided to go to The Peak.

In the afternoon, we went to The Peak by minibus. When we got to The Peak, all of us were very tired and hungry. Therefore, I tried the egg tarts which are very famous for their dense and creamy egg custard poured into a shell and baked to golden perfection. They were really mouthwatering. I would recommend them to my friends. We also had a wonderful lunch there. The food in Hong Kong is really very delicious.

Last but not least, we enjoyed the beautiful night view at the top of The Peak. Hong Kong is like a shining diamond. The night view is amazing. We took a lot of photos.

After the trip, we commented about the trip arrangement. Mum loved the beautiful night view the most. Dad and I loved the egg tarts very much. We hope we can visit Hong Kong again in the future!

A Presentation about Frilled Neck Dragons

5A Siu Ting Hong, Casper

Good morning. Today, I am going to do a short presentation on a prehistoric animal. They are named frilled neck dragons. I would like to talk about these animals because they look really awesome and funny. They look like dinosaurs which I love very much. I saw them in YouTube videos and have grown to love them.

Frilled Neck Dragons are native to northern Australia and southern New Guinea. They spend most of their time in trees.

Although they look like dinosaurs, their body sizes are definitely different from dinosaurs! They are lizards. They grow to 90 cm from head to tail tip and can weigh 600 grams. Their tails are pretty long with tiny legs. They are very cute.

When they are threatened, they stand up on their hind legs, open their mouths and spit, exposing their tiny little teeth. They make a very angry face. It is really funny.

I hope you found my presentation about Frilled Neck Dragons interesting. If you have a chance, try to watch videos or read books about these amazing animals. Thank you for listening.

A Day Trip in Hong Kong

Last month, I went to Hong Kong to visit some special places. My favourite place in Hong Kong is Sham Shui Po which is in Kowloon.

After I left the Hong Kong International Airport, I took the MTR to Sham Shui Po. It took around one hour to get there. When I arrived there, I was extremely hungry so I ate some cart noodles for lunch. It was very delicious. I ate squid curry, sausages, meatballs and turnip. They were mouthwatering street foods. I would definitely recommend my friend to eat there.

Next, I went to a gigantic toy shop to see if there was anything I would like to buy. After I went into the toy shop, I was shocked! There were seven levels and all the toys were clearly categorized into different types. There were mobile toy cars and planes, Legos and even toys that were discontinued for many years! It was really a toy paradise. Luckily, I found a special souvenir which was made in Hong Kong. I was thrilled and gave it to my mother.

Sham Shui Po is certainly a great place to spend a relaxing holiday in Hong Kong. Come and enjoy a wonderful day with your friends and family.

Yesterday, my friend and I went to Lantau Island. We went there by bus.

First, we went to Ngong Ping Village. We flew kites there. We didn't stay there for long. After about twenty minutes, we left.

Then, we went to Tai O Fishing Village. We joined a boat trip and watched the Chinese White Dolphins swimming in the water. We really enjoyed the boat trip. We also watched the sunset.

Finally, we returned home at about six o'clock. We were tired but happy. I would love to go there again!

An Imaginary Illness

5B Ng Chi Lok, Brian

One day, Jack woke up in the morning. Jack was ready to go to school. Suddenly, Jack remembered that he had a very hard exam and if he took that exam, he would definitely fail. So, he pretended to be sick. He told his mum that he was sick. Jack's mum immediately took him to the clinic.

When Jack and his mum arrived at the clinic, a nurse came to him and asked, 'What's the matter?' 'I'm sick,' replied Jack. The nurse checked on Jack. At that time, the nurse knew that Jack was pretending.

After five minutes, the nurse gave Jack a sleeping pill. After Jack ate the pill, he fell asleep.

At last, the nurse told Jack's mum the truth. Jack's mum and the nurse were very mad. Then, Mum drove Jack back to his school. After a while, he woke up in the classroom. The teacher was very angry and gave him zero marks on his exam. When Jack's mum found out, she kicked him out of the house. It was a sad day for Jack.

A Presentation about an amazing animal

5B Yam Wing Lam, Winnus

Good morning. Today, I am going to do a short presentation on cheetahs. Cheetahs are very strong and can run seriously fast. I chose them because they are the fastest animal in the world and they can pull twice their own weight up a tree, too.

Cheetahs' habitat is in Africa. Their lifespan is 10-12 years. Their size is 112-135 cm. They weigh 34-54 kg.

Cheetahs are strong. For example, they can pull an animal twice its weight up a two-storey-high-tree.

Cheetahs are very fast, too. For example, they can reach speeds of 70 miles per hour. They can accelerate to 60 miles per hour (about 97 kilometers) in just 3 seconds. When a cheetah is running at full speed, each stride is often about 20 feet. When their legs are spread out during a stride, it almost looks like they are flying.

This is the end of my sharing, thank you for listening.

One day, Jack woke up in the morning. He was in his bedroom. He woke up late because he was scared about the exam. Therefore, he decided to skip the exam and pretended to be sick.

Then, Jack went to the clinic and described his illness to the nurse. 'What's the matter with you?' asked the nurse. 'I had a fever and a cough.' Jack cried.

The nurse said, 'Really?' She checked Jack's body temperature and then she told Jack, 'There is no fever. However, I still have a special medicine. I think it may help you. Do you want to try it?' Jack was very happy and answered, 'Sure. What is it?' The nurse took out a candy from her pocket and gave it to Jack secretly. Jack took the candy and put it into his pocket. The nurse asked Jack to go back to school. Finally, Jack went to school with the candy.

An Imaginary Illness

One day, Jack woke up in the morning. He was very nervous because he had an exam but he did not do revision. Therefore, Jack decided to pretend to be sick so that he did not need to go to school and could skip the exam.

Jack's parents took him to a clinic. The nurse asked Jack, 'What's the matter with you?' 'I feel sick! I feel bad!' replied Jack. The nurse knew Jack was pretending to be sick. She whispered, 'Are you pretending to be sick?' However, Jack did not tell the truth.

The nurse checked his body temperature. He was fine. The nurse lied to Jack. She said, 'I have a special medicine for you. You need to wait outside.'

While Jack was waiting outside, the nurse told Jack's parents the truth. Jack's mother was very angry. She told Jack to come back. Jack stood in front of his mother. At last, Jack was hit by his mother.

Baby Bear and Goldilocks

5C Lau Hiu Sze, Celia

One day, the weather was beautiful. Baby Bear was very aggressive and strong, so he went for a walk alone. He saw Goldilocks's hut on his way home. He was full of curiosity and he wanted to go inside.

Baby Bear knocked on the door and cried loudly, 'Is anybody there?' However, no one answered. Baby Bear kicked on the door and the door was broken. Then, Baby Bear tiptoed into the hut because he was hungry. He wanted to find some food to eat.

First, Baby Bear checked if Goldilocks was hiding inside the hut. However, Goldilocks was not in the living room nor the bathroom. Baby Bear was as angry as a lion because he could not see anybody or find any food in the hut.

When Baby Bear went upstairs, he saw Goldilocks in her bedroom. She was sleeping on the bed. Baby Bear woke Goldilocks up and asked, 'I am very hungry. Where is the food?' Then, Goldilocks gave Baby Bear a bar of chocolate. Baby Bear was happy and he went back home.

A Genie from the Wardrobe

5D Gurung Hero

One day, Eric and Alan lost their way in a forest. They found a castle and decided to go inside. They crept into the room and saw a picture, a window and a wardrobe. Eric got curious and wanted to open the wardrobe. Although Alan told him not to open the wardrobe, he opened it anyway.

Suddenly, a scary genie flew out of the wardrobe. Eric got scared and ran away. Alan asked the genie to bring them back home. The genie said that he could not leave the castle. However, he could give Alan a map. Alan took the map and tried to find Eric but he could not find him.

Finally, Alan went back home but Eric was never found.

A Day Trip in Hong Kong

5D Kwok Yat Chun, Morris

I had a day trip in Hong Kong last month. I went to Hong Kong Disneyland with my family. We went there by MTR.

First, we went to a shop that sold Super Hero items. There were many types of Super Hero costumes such as Iron Man, Captain America, Hulk and Thor. They looked so cool.

After that, we met some people dressed as horrifying ghosts in the haunted house and we rode on some roller coasters.

At last, we got hungry and bought some delicious dumplings. We had a great day. I hope that we will visit again.

A Presentation about an amazing animal

5D Le Strat Owen Baptiste Marie

Good morning. Today, I am going to do a presentation on giraffes. The giraffe is an interesting ruminant. It is the tallest and the largest ruminant on Earth. Its body is relatively short. Their skin is mostly grey or tan and it can reach 20 mm thick.

The giraffe has a very long neck, long legs and spotted coat pattern. Their neck can be used as a weapon. A male giraffe's skin becomes darker as it grows old.

In 2016, there were about 97,500 giraffes living in the wild. More than 1,600 were kept in zoos in 2010. Also, giraffes are found in many national parks and game reserves.

Giraffes are very cool. I wish I could be one.

One day, Jack woke up in the morning. He remembered he had a Maths exam. Jack's weakest subject was Maths. Therefore, he was nervous. His mum was coming to wake him up so he pretended to be sick.

Jack told his mum that he had a headache. Mum decided to let him stay at home. Jack felt excited because he could skip the exam. However, Mum took Jack to the clinic. He felt worried.

Mum took him to the clinic and they checked in half an hour later. The nurse asked, 'What's the matter with you?' Mum said, 'My son said he has a headache and feels sick.' After the nurse checked his body temperature, she said, 'Your son's body temperature is fine.'

Then the nurse said to Jack, 'I have some special medicine for you.' Jack saw that it was an injection. Jack cried, 'No!'

At last, Jack told the truth that he lied about being sick so that he could skip the exam. Mum punished Jack and did not let him play video games for a week.

A Short Story of an Unforgettable Experience

Last Sunday, my family and I went to Ocean Park. We took the cable car.

Suddenly, there was no power. We were stranded inside the cable car. We cried for help as the cable car was not moving. The people on the ground helped to report it to the police. Though we were terrified, we kept each other calm because help was on the way.

In the end, the firefighters came to help us. We all went back home and felt relieved.

A Trip in Tsim Sha Tsui

5E Wakeford Kayleb Sun

Last weekend, my family and I went to Tsim Sha Tsui for a day trip. We went there by bus. I felt excited before we went on the trip.

When we arrived there, we first strolled along the Avenue of Stars and looked at the view. I felt very relaxed. Then, we visited Harbour City Shopping Mall. We bought a lot of souvenirs and played on some toy claw machines. My dad won something. He is a very lucky person.

After that, we went to a Chinese restaurant to have dinner. The dinner was very big. It took three hours to finish all of the food. Then, we played more games in the indoor playground until 9 pm. My dad said, 'Let's go to the Star Ferry Pier to take a ferry!' When we were on the ferry, it was already late, so I fell asleep. Finally, we stayed in a hotel for the night.

I like the trip very much because I could learn more about Tsim Sha Tsui. I hope I can visit there again soon.
